World Chocolate Day is on July 7, so why not celebrate with a little something chocolatey all day? Many San Diego restaurants offer great dishes with chocolate for breakfast, lunch and dinner!

Breakfast Republic is home to the perfect pancake for this holiday: the Oreo Cookie Pancake. With chocolate pancake batter and creamy filling, this dish is a must for chocolate lovers. The best part? Breakfast Republic now has eight locations around San Diego county, so you can get your fix no matter what part of town you're in!

Craving something a little more exotic? Lazy Hippo puts the deliciousness of a crepe on a stick, then drizzles everyone's favorite hazelnut spread, Nutella, and tops it all off with some bacon crumbles. Sweet and savory, all together, for the perfect breakfast bite.

One of the newer restaurants to the scene, North Park Breakfast Company, is a great stop for a little something sweet for breakfast. Order the S'mores Waffles and be ready to be wowed. House buttermilk waffles, topped with a chocolate ganache, marshmallow fluff, and graham cracker crumble – trust us, you won't even miss the campfire!

Farmer's Bottega raises the bar even higher with their Reese's and Ice Cream Pancakes! Made especially for those chocolate lovers with a sweet tooth straight out of bed, Farmer's Bottega brings a chocolatey boom in this tasty evolution of the pancake. Is there anyone who can resist the ultimate mix of peanut butter and chocolate together? We doubt it!

Jump straight into chocolate at Jalisco Cantina! No sides or add-ons, just chocolate... with a south of the border twist. Get Jalisco's Mexican Chocolate Sampler for an out of country experience! Get chocolate chile caramels, pecan truffles and chipotle chocolate all at the same time! This one is for the chocolate lovers looking to add some spice to their day!
